The official IPM App 2019

This app is being actively promoted to IPM visitors through the IPM-website and newsletter, where it is available for download free of charge. It is also being advertised in horticulture media published by Verlag Eugen Ulmer. It offers visitors a variety of practical features – and you can use this to your benefit.

How? Quite simply: by booking a Premium Package!

The Premium Package includes the following services:

- » Client homepage (a mini-app)
- » Secondary client page: Your company's contact details and contact person
- » Exhibitor news client page: Your company's events/news
- » A note in the exhibitor list and a link to your mini-app

As you can see, this app gives you the opportunity of effectively reaching the most technically advanced and innovative IPM visitors. Use it to your advantage!

Early booking bonus: If you book the IPM-app 2019 by 14th December 2018, you can obtain the Premium Package for a one-off payment of € 389,- instead of € 450,-.

We order the IPM-app 2019 Premium Package at the attractive early booking price (by 14th December 2018) of € 389,- instead of € 450,- plus legal VAT.
